

STEP in
GEORGIA

TRAVEL ITINERARY MOUNT TETNULDI

ACTIVITIES: MOUNTAINEERING / CLIMBING
LOCATION: CAUCASUS, GEORGIA
LATITUDE: 44.1 / LONGITUDE: 42.15

Mount Tetnuldi (4,810 m,) is one of the most beautiful peaks of the Caucasus, It's white, pristine beauty wrapped in the rays of the rising sun almost fills the sky. Grand and dignified, it is at times capricious, even savage. Tetnuldi is the 10th highest mountain of the Caucasus; it is a prominent peak in the central part of the Greater Caucasus Mountain Range, located in the Svaneti region of Georgia. It is permanently covered with abundant snow and ice which makes it really tough to be climbed. The slopes of the mountain are glaciated generally above the 3,000 metre (9,840 ft) line. There are several glaciers on the slopes of Tetnuldi, for instance Adishi Glacier and etc. Tetnuldi has many routes ranging from easy (II-UIAA) to hard (VI-UIAA). Combined routes with steep rocky, icy, and snow sections and the size of these objectives make them quite serious undertaking, requiring excellent physical condition and mountaineering experience. All climbs are accompanied by an experienced mountain team to ensure your safety. Climbing this beautiful perpetually snow-covered peak of the Caucasus is sure to be an unforgettable experience

WHEN TO CLIMB?

The most convenient time: July to August
Duration: 6 days

DAY 1

Arrival. Transfer from Tbilisi international airport to Mestia (480 km, 9-10 hours).
Lunch on the road / Guest house accommodation.

DAY 2

After early breakfast sending to the route by car (jeep 4X4) toward 2500 m/ afterwards hike to the base camp 3700 m (6-8 hours)

DAY 3- Considering the relatively often bad weather, 1 day as a reserve

DAY 4- Preparation, instructions, acclimatization day (climb the camp 1)

DAY 5- Climb on summit / Back to the base camp

DAY 6 – Reserve day

DAY 7- Descent down to Mestia / Departure to Tbilisi

